Adult ed begins

The Adult Education program for first semester for the most part got underway this week in the Appomattox County School Division. "Adults who have not registered and who desire to take a class may still enroll in any of the classes offered this semester. Classes for adults are taught on an individualized basis and adults will not be at any disadvantages by enrolling now," states R. B. Carter, Adult Education Coordinator. In several classes additional enrollment is needed if the class is to continue. The Appomattox County School Board reserves the right to cancel classes where enrollment is less than ten persons. Adults are urged to take advantage of the many opportunities offered through the Adult Education Program. Classes that are starting now include typing, upholstery, GED Review, accounting, art, aerobex, physical education for men and women, DEB and woodworking.

Persons desiring to enroll in a class or who want information concerning adult education classes may call 352-8259 between the hours of 8:30 and 5:00.

Robin Lynn Elder selected for state finals of Teenworld Pageant

Miss Robin Lynn Elder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Danny E. Elder of Buckingham has been selected for competition in the State Finals of the 1981 Teenworld Pageant to be held in Staunton, Virginia on Sept. 26, 1981.

The Pageant is the Official State Finals for the Teenworld Pageant. Contestants from all over the state will be competing for the title. All contestants are between the ages of 14 and 18, have a "B" or better grade average, and are required to participate in the Teenworld Volunteer Service Program. The winner of the State Finals will receive an all-expense paid trip to compete in the National Finals at the Omni in Atlanta, Georgia, on New Years Eve. She will compete for $15,000 in scholarships, a new automobile for the reigning year, a $5,000 appearances contract, a $2,000 wardrobe, and many other prizes and awards.

Contestants will be judged on scholastic and civic achievements, appearance, poise, and personality. Contestants may choose between talent competition or presenting a speech on "My Place in the World."

Prize money totaling $240 will be awarded. Winners in each of the four age classes will be announced at ceremonies of the ninth annual Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival. Passbook savings accounts in the amounts of: $25 - first prize; $15 - second prize; $10 - third prize; and two $5 - prizes for honorable mention, will be awarded.

The contest is open to all students of the Appomattox County Schools. Information regarding where to submit the entries and rules of the contest has been given to all primary and elementary techers and the art teachers at the middle and high schools.

Big circus slated

A rare opportunity to see some of the world's top tanbark stars -- many of whom had portions of their acts featured on televised highlights during the winter months -- will be afforded residents of this area when the Carson & Barnes 5-Ring Wild Animal Circus comes to Lynchburg on Tuesday, Oct. 6, for performances at 4:30 and 8 p.m. on US Highway 29, 5 miles south.

The circus will appear under the auspices of Blue Ridge React Team. Shows also will be given at 4:30 and 8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 9, at Farmville fairgrounds, auspices fire dept.

Carson & Barnes is the world's largest tent circus and the only big show still displaying a zoological collection of wild and exotic animals without additional charge to all patrons of the performance.

A herd of 25 elephants is featured in both the show and the menagerie. The cast of 125 human performers includes more than 50 appearing in the United States for the first time. The all-new performance includes a group of ferocious lions and tigers, presented by youthful John Anthony Marrone, somersaulting troupes of flying trapeze artists, prancing liberty horses under the direction of Laura Herriot, 14-year-old Wally Eastwood who juggles ping-pong balls with his mouth, five rings of ponderous elephants, tightwire wizards, Miss Marta demonstrating amazing juggling feats while hanging only by her hair, an augmented contingent of funny clowns and the processional entitled "The Clown Is King."

Also to be seen are Freddie, an African lion who rides on the back of an Indian Elephant, single trapeze acts, bareback rider-Luciana Loyal, contortionista, magician-Phil Chandler, tumblers, hand balancers, performing camels and clever dogs. The entire performance is backed by a large, brassy circus band.

Area residents are invited to the show grounds on circus morning to witness one of the most spectacular free shows imaginable -- the arrival, unloading and erection of the mammoth tent -- as large as a football field from goal post to goal post -- and the unloading, watering and feeding of the many wild, exotic and domestic animals with the circus.

Tickets will be available for performances at the doors, and the circus midway will be open one hour before each show to allow time for inspection of the animals and other special attractions. The React members are selling tickets at a 20% discount if purchased before circus day.
